Dear, Mark

The meeting that we had on April 2 2016 during the conference hosted by the Department of state were very productive. For several months, I everywhere have been searching about a partner to advance my project (because I need to getting started very soon) but haven't found no body with right profile. With all of your experience you would a great addition to our team

As you and I discussed during our meeting, my company has three hundred offices worldwide, we have many qualified employees. My business, who has three years, offer much services to our clients in order to have a diverse profile. Whatever their needs, we doesn't never disappoint they. Our main services are: consulting, accounting, and negotiating contracts of sail. You may have seen our recent 24 hour exhibition at the Waterford hotel, in which thousands people were present. One of our recent endeavors was working for a sport car company (known for their Italian red pickups). A one in million opportunity for us!

Do your business continue to want to work together and advance this project? Mark aren you currently working on some of biggest projects? What I learned about your company are very interesting, and I was happy to meets your employees your employees. Each of your employees were speaking very highly of they're career. it was good to hear some of the employees's opinions about your company. Lets collaborate together! There is many opportunities for us by working in partnership. Last year our company make 2354687$ in profit, we called it, " our best year ever". Afterward we expanded too three more countries. Everyday we work to improve our company to the extent possible, anybody will tell you we are always on the move. Nothing is better than constant progress, we always works to advance because the new!

My boss and an executive, says me he also wants to meet you for discuss this possibility. They also could give to you advices. When you think you will has a response from your company? I not have a lot of time to wait to find an business partner, and we won t waited to move forward. Will you have the resource's to start a new project at this time.

I have would liked to have more time to discuss with you during the conference, as I see you are a very interesting persons but my. I had the most great time meeting you, I could of talked with you all night! If you have time, I liked to have a 2rd meeting to getting to know you and to discuss this opportunity. We could either meet ourselves at my offices, next to the crappy statue of Harison Ford, on the twenty fifth floor, to have a conversation about the possibility of a partnership. If you are interested, please responds quickly via email or stop by the offices on 12,00 p.m. at thursday.

If you finish to do your choice you had to call my secretary. This exciting opportunity won't wait ! I am awaiting eagerly your response. We would to be happy too have you.

Kind Regards

Erin
